Our Policy

Fair Housing Resource Center is committed to protecting the privacy of its online visitors. FHRC will collect no personally-identifiable information about you (e.g., your name, address, telephone number or e-mail address) when you visit our site unless you choose to provide that information to us. If you do not want your personally-identifiable information collected, please do not submit it to us.

Information Collected and Stored Automatically

If you do nothing during your visit to our site but browse through the website, read pages, or download information, we will gather and store certain information about your visit automatically. We store this information for three years. This information does not identify you personally. We collect and store only the following information about you: the name of the domain from which you access the Internet (e.g., earthlink.net if you are connecting from an Earthlink account); the date and time you access our site; and the Internet address of the website from which you linked directly to our site, which may permit us to determine the corporation, government agency, or university through which you accessed our site. We collect this information for statistical purposes and sometimes to perform analyses of user behavior in order to measure customer interest in various areas of our website and to help make our site more useful to visitors. We will disclose this information to third parties only in aggregate form.

We do not enable “cookies.” (A “cookie” is a file placed on your hard drive by a website that allows it to monitor your use of the site, usually without your knowledge.)

If You Choose to Send Us Personally-Identifiable Information

If you choose to send us personally-identifiable information – as in email or by filling out a form with your personally –identifiable information and submitting it to us through our website- we use that information only to respond to your message or request. This information is only used by those employees who are involved in the operation of this website or whose job it is to respond to your message or request. Fair Housing Resource Center never sells any of its lists to third parties. We will only share personally-identifiable information with third parties when (i) the person submitting the information authorizes us to share it; or (ii) we are required to by law. We do not create individual profiles with the information that you provide us.

Site Security

For website security purposes and to ensure that this service remains available to all users, we employ software programs to monitor network traffic to identify unauthorized attempts to upload and change information, or otherwise cause damage.
